Dear Dr. Blackburn:

Thank you for the copy of "Tentative Guide to the Underwriting of Serum Cholesterol Values", which I received today. Your report focuses attention upon a rather vague area of underwriting and mortality, which certainly cannot be clarified without further study. This guide should well form the basis for the accumulation of information from different companies which could result in some significant values for definitive information.

Thank you for your information. We will utilize the guide and advise you of our experiences.

Sincerely,

Warren J. Henzicker
