Manager
International Hotel
Kennedy Airport
Jamaica, New York 11430

Dear Sir:

I am sorry that I was forced to leave your hotel on the morning of June 9th, in order to catch a plane to Europe. I was unable to sign out of my room because of 1) extremely slow porter service for handling my bags, which was necessary because I have a back injury, 2) a terribly long line at the cashiers desk, which was obviously understaffed for the prime check-out hour, and 3) a totally inadequate transport service provided by the hotel to the Kennedy terminals. Clearly in the future, I will be better off to stay in Manhattan.

I assume that you forwarded my bill to American Express as you had marked my card number. However, if any signatures are required please send the bill directly to me at this address.

Sincerely,

Henry Blackburn, M.D.
