Dear Friend:

It was very good of you to think of me for September and the Jazz Party. In fact, I am invited to Copenhagen on 9 September which would coincide nicely. But my increasing responsibilities here, and a trip to New Zealand and Australia at the end of September have led me to give up a trip across the smaller river.

I suspect that your new departmental facilities are now quite complete and functional and that this pleases you.

Regards to your family and thanks,

Henry Blackburn, M.D.

Dear Henri,

I know how much you want to play with the Dutch Swing College Band of Peter Schilperoort.

We have a workshop in September (see enclosure). On the evening of September 5, Peter Schilperoort and his band will give a performance for the attendants and guests of the workshop. Isn't that a wonderful opportunity for you to play with them then and there? I would be more than pleased to invite you for the workshop, but you would have to buy your own ticket.

I'm writing you this just in case you should find an opportunity to cross the Atlantic River at that time.

With warmest regards,

Very sincerely yours,

Frits L. Meijler, M.D.
