Dear Mr. Masna:

Out of 125,000 households and 25,000 men screened in the last year, your letter of August 26th is the first evidence that someone's data had fallen between the cracks. We regret sincerely that you failed to get your results on time as promised. Our records indicate it was mailed. We have sent you again this date the results of your screening. Please call me personally if you do not receive them promptly or have any questions.

Cordially,

Dr. Blackburn:

About two months ago I participated in your screening examination for the Heart Attack Prevention Program.

Although I was advised there would be a notification of results within 2 weeks I have received no information since the screening.

After taking the time to go through the screening I feel someone should have followed through with the results as promised.
