Conwell.

Dear Mr. Miles:

I guess I can probably release much of what I said at Spokane. But I'm afraid I'll have to hear what is in the tape you wish to reproduce and sell before I can authorize this. The reason for this is that I speak from data collected by dozens of collaborating investigators. There are strict editorial policies on release of these data for publication; and these are out of my control. Because I was not informed beforehand that this material would be reproduced I did not request this from our editorial groups. Just send me along a cassette tape and I'll see if I can sign the release with no more ado.

Regards,

Henry Blackburn, M. D.
