

June 21, 1974

CONFIDENTIAL

Dr. Richard Ross
Cardiovascular Division
Johns Hopkins Hospital
Baltimore, Maryland 21205

Dear Dick:

I have no overwhelming ideas for candidates in or out of NIH for Ted Cooper's post. I have always been impressed with the levelness and competence of Jerry Greene, who has a firm background in clinical and research medicine and considerable political savvy.

Cordially,

Henry Blackburn, M.D.

HB:jp

blind jc: HLT