Dear Sack:

You really seem to be hitting your stride. The regular viewer is more and more conscious of the effectiveness of your satire. I would be grateful to have a copy or copies of your particularly effective recent cartoon on "The Safe Cigarette." I will get it to a few places in the Heart Association, Cancer Society, and Washington, D.C. where it might be effectively used nationally in health education.

Cordially,

Henry Blackburn, M.D.
