Dear Henry,

Your critical reviews of risk factor and behavior modification were extremely well received by the entire audience, and both the didactic presentation and more informal discussion during the panel went extremely well. We were very pleased that you could join us; enjoyed having dinner with you, and all parties concerned felt that a large measure of the course's success resulted from your participation.

We are enclosing a check covering your expenses and honorarium. We hope to see you soon at one of the up-coming meetings.

Very sincerely yours,
