Dear Dave:

Thanks so much. I'm recovering slowly from a back injury from playing tennis.

Glad to see numerators still are searching for denominators.

Regards,

Henry Blackburn, M.D.

Dear Henry:

Your reply to George Mann was, of course "right on". Indeed, it is the only conceivable answer, with all the virtues, besides truth, of simplicity and succinctness. It would be hard to attribute its brevity to writer's cramp which would not have put you at your unique address (the most precise in the correspondence section of NEJM). I do hope, whatever it is has by now cleared. Best wishes for a speedy recovery.

Yours sincerely,

David H. Spodick, M.D.
