Dear Jerry:

When you are in Arkansas this week I would be grateful, if you think of it, for a little thing.

Could you explore briefly with Benson whether LSU might like to have me as a visiting professor say every March or April. It would help me to face the prospect of another 20 years in Minnesota and to continue to develop my relationships with the rapidly dwindling musicians there who mean much to me. I am approaching Grace Goldsmith also.

Have a good visit.

Regards,

Henry Blackburn, M.D.
