Dear Jerry:

I am very much in favor of our initiating recommendations to the Central Committee on Current Controversies. I am assigning the several topics for rough drafts and will forward them to Gardner MacMillan to pursue with us.

I think the ISCR will respond adequately to its own attacker in Counterpoint.

Regards,

Henry Blackburn, M.D.

P. S. Jerry: I was on a platform last week with E. C. Pinckney from L. A.--who is passionately saying erroneous things about the dangers of unsaturated fats, distorting other issues even more, and recommending only drugs to reduce serum lipids. He claims to have been Chairman of Preventive Medicine at Northwestern. I wish you would have your secretary check out his past position there and let me know. It seems incomprehensible.
