

24 July 1995
7 Comments Book
letters

Dear Henry,

Thank you so much for sending along a copy of the Seven Countries book! Marie and I had heard good things about it but we did not know how to get a copy.

The photos are great — I especially enjoyed the pictures of Henry Taylor, Nedra Foster, and the "old" Ancel. The anecdotes are terrific. I had never heard of your exchanges with the CIA — but (sadly) I am not surprised at them, and pleased (once again) at your reactions.

Have just received sad news about Percy Humphrey. Wonderful person and sound. Too bad I never got to hear his Eureka Brass Band.

Thanks for kind comments and the book. I hope all is well with you and yours.

Best regards -

Cordially
Jery Morris