Dear Florence:

I am told that there will be a plane from Athens to Dubrovnik on Saturday, September 14. From Dubrovnik to Makarska may take 1 to 2 hours by a fine scenic road. Many of us may wish to take that route. There are also quite a few ships from Piraeus and/or Patras that put in at Dubrovnik and Split, and some stop at Makarska.

More precise information is promised soon and I shall send it on to you.

Regards.

Sincerely,

Ansel Keys, Director
