Dear Auncel -

Belatedly, I've just reviewed your new "Eat Well, etc." It thoroughly deserves its solid place on the best seller list, and will stay there a long time.

Indeed, I read right through your introductory chapters at the pace I reserve for a sexy novel and even the recipe sections are delightfully personalized and sprightly. Lois and I plan to try some of the more exotic ones promptly.

Throughout you manage to present the Message without preachment or hint of retaliation. It's a real contribution to the public health and you both deserve the success it is achieving.

Sincerely,

Campbell Mores
