Dear Vice President Infante:

I expect that we may disagree on some of the enclosed editorial rantings, but the small sections on "The Economy" on page 1327 and on "A house in order" on page 1330 may be amusing or at least provocative. At any rate, I send this along with regards for your good handling of serious issues on campus.

Cordially,

Henry Blackburn, M.D.
Mayo Professor of Public Health

Dear Colleague:

I don't think I have ever received such a kind letter as your recent one. I am in agreement with the folks who will honor you in January in Philadelphia and will be pleased to see you there.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Blackburn, M.D.
Professor of Public Health
