Dear Henry:

At your presentation to the Association of University Cardiologists at Quail Lodge in January, I was very pleased with your lecture, especially hearing the anecdotes and reminiscences about Dr. Burch.

I have tried unsuccessfully to reproduce one slide that you showed. This had to do with diffusion and adoption of healthy lifestyles for the prevention of heart disease. Would it be possible to get a print of that slide? I think it is an important overview on how an idea becomes initiated through awareness, knowledge, etc., and finally begins to have an impact on heart disease. I hope you recall the slide.

ok?

Thank you very much.

Sincerely yours,
