Dear Henry,

I seem to wake up only at this time of year to remember my old friends. My apologies for the late reply to your letter.

Many thanks for the Seven Countries Book which was a joy to read. It brought back wonderful memories. No, I have not written my memoirs yet. I have big plans not yet translated into action.

I was due to go to Prague but had to cancel my trip because of my sister's illness. I was looking forward to seeing Ladanek Peffar, Pisa & others.

Do you have any plan for visiting India? I hope to be in the U.S. in March 2004. I have been given an award by Harvard Medical International & have to be in Boston on March 6. Maybe I shall call you from there. Please give me any contact numbers.

Usually hear you Annel &
Margaret at Xmas. What a wonderful life this has been!

lots of love
Daddy
